

Pre Congress Course #3

Wednesday, 21 November 2018; 13:00-17:30

Endometriosis School

Seminar and postgraduate course to brush up on your knowledge about endometriosis with respect to practical and clinical problems.

Moderation:

Ludwig Kiesel, Münster, Germany and Karl-Werner Schweppe, Westerstede, Germany

1:00 – 1:25 pm Actual concepts in the pathogenesis of endometriosis, endometriosis related pain and endometriosis related infertility.

Sylvia Mechsner, Berlin, Germany

1:25 – 1:50 pm Diagnosis, Classification and staging of peritoneal disease, endometrioma and deep infiltrating endometriosis.

Hans Tinneberg, Frankfurt, Germany

1:50 – 2:15 pm Relevance of biomarkers in the diagnosis of endometriosis – presence and future.

Ludwig Kiesel, Münster, Germany

2:15 – 2:40 pm How to diagnose and treat adenomyosis in patients with endometriosis.

Harald Krentel, Herne, Germany

2:40 – 3:10 pm Differential diagnosis and risk of malignancy – the main indications for biopsy.

Karl-Werner Schweppe, Westerstede, Germany

3:10 – 3:25 pm Discussion

3:25 – 3:40 pm Break

3:40 – 4:05 pm Malignancy – arising in endometriosis and associated with endometriosis

Uwe Ulrich, Berlin, Germany

4:05 – 4:30 pm Surgery – the first line therapy of endometriosis, with special references to indications, techniques and complications.

Horace Roman, Bordeaux, France

4:30 – 4:50 pm The Place of surgery in the management of endometriosis related infertility.

Klaus Bühler, Saarbrücken, Germany

4:50 – 5:15 pm Update in medical treatment of endometriosis related pain and a possible prophylaxis of endometriosis.

Martin Sillem, Mannheim, Germany

5:15 – 5:30 pm Discussion and closing remarks